NEVER AGAIN.

Says the Brooklyn Eagle: "Theodore Roosevelt has opportunely rallied against him his motley forces at just the time to arouse the distrust and apprehension of influences no politician has ever yet successfully offended in American history.

"Aaron Burr came nearest to doing so, but the revulsion of the patriotic men of both parties saved the Republic in its infancy from the danger and the shame of his intended overthrow of our institutions. Those who think any man in the second century of this nation can do what Hamilton and Jefferson made Burr unable to do in the dawn of the third decade of our history neither fear God nor regard man.

nor regard man.

"One need only recall the history of Democratic Presidents to perceive that they preserved the country from the machinations of such gamblers within the party as would have ruined the nation. Democrats alternated with Federalists, Whigs and Republicans, but a third term for any of them was never voted to any man and never should be. From Burr, a schemer, to Roosevelt, a third term, the instinct of self-preservation has saved the Republic and should ever be trusted to do so. Be 'the next President' of what party he may, the man he should not be is now writing his name as a defendant in a libel suit and should never again be able to write it from the White House."

The Courier-Journal has never doubted that Theodore Roosevelt is the victim of a periodic form of insanity. Nothing else can explain the shocking inconsistencies of thought and action which mark his career. The strangest part of these is their transparency and at the same time a certain quality of imposing upon the credulity of those who gather around and heroize the image he has set up of all that is odious in man; bullying aggression, unsupported assertion and supercilious claim to overlordship.

It will be observed that at this moment in his outgivings he affects the style and manner of an autocrat; uses the first person singular, like the Kaiser, or the Czar; and demands of his followers abject obedience.

The Eagle is altogether right. He will never again be President. That he should be is treason in the very thought. No public man was ever so vulnerable, not even Burr, after the death of Hamilton and his abortive attempt upon the life of the Republic. The Courier-Journal says this rather in sorrow than in anger.—Courier-Journal.

"GOING AROUND THE END."

The Belgians are displaying pluck and early reports indicate that they are effectively fighting the Germans who have violated Belgian neutrality to get into French territory by avoiding the fortified frontier.

The French-German frontier is fortified from end to end. Getting into France through Belgium is going around the end of the fortified line. It seems to have been agreed that Belgian territory should not be made a highroad by either of the two fortified countries. The Germans are, apparently, of the opinion that war breeds necessity which knows no law and recognizes no restraint.—State Journal.

ELIMINATE THE WAR LORD.

A prominent Boston banker says: "The settlement of the world war now threatening can only be had by the elimination of the rule of the Hohen-zollerns. This crazy war lord, drunk with power and egotism, has been preparing to descend on the civilized world ever since the war with the French, 1870. When he came to the throne he dismissed Bismarck, the greatest statesman of Europe, and ever since that hour has been aiming himself to be the Napoleonic ruler of the world.

"The civilized nations of the world should combine to eliminate such a war lord."

DANCING AND DIVORCE.

Whenever a statistician has nothing more important on hand he takes a whirl at the divorce problems. Unfortunately this is one of those questions upon which is well nigh impossible to get real expert information since those who have been through the mill and ought to know most about the subject seldom are in position to give unbiased testimony on the matter.

One of the latest causes assigned by a statistician for the increase in divorce is the dances with the beast and fowl names. This, however, is like declaring that the assassination of Crown Prince Franz Ferdinand was the cause of the great European war, while it simply was one of the symptoms of international conditions which made an armed conflict in the near east inevitable. The causes leading up to divorce usually are more serious and deep-rooted than the tango or even the more or less renowned "grizzly bear." In fact, selfishness and lack of adaptability are the fundamental reasons underlying probably nine-tenths of the divorces sought and obtained. On which basis one is driven to the conclusion that the love upon which sexual mating is predicated seldom is platonic and never is unselfish.

When men begin to seek divorces in order that their wives may marry better husbands and wives seek separations that their husbands may be more happily mated with less tergiversant women only may look elsewhere than in colossal egotism for the causes for divorce.

The new dances have enough to answer for without placing to their credit evils which properly belong elsewhere.—Commercial Tribune.

NEGRO TROOPS FOR FRANCE.

If the war lasts long enough for France to bring her colonial troops over from the Congo, for the first time since the Crusaders, negro troops will be found fighting on European soil.

Native levies from Algeria, with French officers, took part, if we are not mistaken, in the Franco-Prussian War, and gave a very good account of themselves. The familiar Zouave jacket is their distinctive wear. There were, besides, the famous Chasseurs d'Afrique, an elite corps.

These negro troops are a splendid body of men, extremely enduring and sober, Mohammedan for the most part. No reliable figures are available as to their total enrollment, but it is known to exceed a hundred thousand men and is susceptible of indefinite enlargement.—Louisville Herald.

FOOLISH PHILOSOPHY.

A woman may call herself a lone widow without being alone very much.

Money has its shortcomings, but that doesn't seem to affect its going.

THE TRIALS OF TEACHING.

Mrs. Hitch was having some trouble with a little fellow in her spelling class at Clayville.

"B-e-d, spells bed," she explained, over and over again.

"B-e-d, bed. Do you understand?"

"Yes'm."

"Well, e-a-t spells eat, d-o-g spells dog, and b-e-d spells—what did I tell you b-e-d spells?"

"Dunno."

"Don't know! You don't know what b-e-d spells after all I've told you?"

"No'm."

"Well, once more, b-e-d spells what you sleep in. Now what do you sleep in?"

"My drawers!" triumphantly exclaimed the arch.—Cynthiana Democrat.

RESPONDENCY

TOLESBORO.

Mrs. Clara Kellogg, nee Putnam, and little son, of Fort Thomas are being entertained by friends and relatives here for a few weeks.

Miss Alma, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Irvine, who with her friend, Mrs. Baker of Marion, Ind., have been visiting the former's parents here, have returned to their homes.

Mrs. G. W. Ruark and daughter, Mrs. Grover Hull, were associated with friends near Aberdeen, Ohio, the latter part of last and first of this week.

Sneak thieves have been operating in the vegetable gardens and poultry roosts, here and hereabouts. A small charge of shot might convince these gentry that they were not doing exactly the proper caper.

The Toleboro Base Ball Club crossed bats with the Mt. Carmel team on the latter's ground, Saturday last, and defeated them by the score of 15 to 7.

Tom Politt received a serious kick in the lower part of the bowels, on Wednesday of last week by one of his horses.

With Albert Wood as principal, and Miss Aurora Ruggies as assistant, our public school opens for the Fall term on Monday of this week.

Dist. Supt. Rev. Dr. Mann of the M. E. Church, South, preached here on Wednesday and Thursday nights, last, to large and appreciative congregations.

Mr. John Politt and daughter, Mrs. Annie Parker, with her children, of Orangeburg, were associated with Mr. and Mrs. John Gault of this place over Sunday.

Mrs. Will May of Huntington, W. Va., is visiting her foster parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Gray here.

Rev. Jesse, pastor of the Holiness church at this place, assisted by Revs. John and Boni Fleming, Wm. Diehl, and Ralph Chatfield, have created a deep religious awakening in this community in the tent meeting which closed on Monday night of last week. Large crowds were present, many coming from a distance at each night's service. There were many conversions, sanctification and recommitments. Not a small part of the services was the singing of Mrs. Shanks, of Cincinnati, who was accompanied by her husband on the cornet.

FIFTY YEARS AGO IN CINCINNATI

(Commercial Tribune.)

AUGUST 8, 1861.

The weather was clear and warm. There were nine pocket arrivals and eight departures. Business was good on the landing.

News is received in Cincinnati to the effect that the fleet under Admiral Farragut has passed the outer forts at Mobile and that the fall of the city is certain.

New York market quotations yesterday were: Gold $200 1/2, flour $10.30, wheat $2.25 and corn $1.55.

There was a heavy rainfall in Cincinnati and vicinity last night and the entire territory has been greatly benefited.

Dr. S. Mosher, the well-known horticulturist, died at his home, Latonia Springs, yesterday.

Three cars of freight from Albany, N. Y., arrived at the Little Miami Depot yesterday, all of which had come through intact, the cars being of what is known as the "adjustable type" and can be made to fit the gauge of the various roads over which the freight must pass.

Lieutenant Isaac Shideler and Miss A. Beuninger, both of this city, were married yesterday, the Rev. Mr. Baschig performing the ceremony.

In the above we notice New York market quotations were: Gold $200 1/2, flour $10.30, wheat $2.25 and corn $1.55. Gold we have none, but when it comes to flour at $10.30 we fear we would be in the same class as the gold—we would have none. Our high cost of living has not soared yet to quite $10.30 for flour.

IN OLD KENTUCKY.

(Cynthiana Log Cabin.)

The editor of the Log Cabin leaves Monday to camp at High Bridge, the first week's vacation he has had in ten years.

(Hawesville Clarion.)

Messrs. Roberts, of Lewisport, bought a 100-acre tract of timber land from Ed Lambert near the county line. The price paid was $5,000. The timber is mostly white oak.

(Horse Cave Herald.)

Price Fisher captured a rattlesnake on the knob Monday and it was brought to the Herald office. It measured three feet and eight inches, and was not in any way injured while being captured.

(Eddyville Herald.)

Mr. C. C. Cummins, of this city, who was 76 years old last June, tried his luck on killing rabbits, and at a distance of thirty-four steps killed two half-grown rabbits in less than one-half minute and only fired two shots.

(Elkton Times.)

Although he received only three votes in the county, Mr. Vance, Progressive nominee for Senator, enjoys the distinction of being the only man of any party who ever carried Todd county by acclamation, as there was not a single vote cast against him.

A pick-pocket trust is the latest alleged monopoly in restraint of trade.

BURDENS LIFTED

From Maysville Backs—Relief Proved By Lapses of Time.

Backache is a heavy burden; Nervousness, dizziness, headache. Rheumatic pain; urinary ills; All wear one out. Often effects of kidney weakness. No use to cure the symptoms, Relief is but temporary if the cause remains.

If it's the kidneys, cure the cause. Doan's Kidney Pills are for kidney ills.

Read about your neighbor's case. Here's Maysville testimony. The kind that can be investigated.

Mrs. John E. Burns, Maysville, Ky., says: "The statement I gave before when I publicly recommended Doan's Kidney Pills, still holds good. I know that this remedy is just as represented as it has been used by one of my relatives with satisfactory results. Doan's Kidney Pills were procured at Wood & Son's Drug Store."

Mrs. Burns is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mrs. Burns recommends—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c all stores. "When Your Back Is Lame—Remember the Name."

WALL STREET'S WAR.

(By John E. Nordquist.)

Why should we war with Mexico? Why stand for all the sham Of the dirty thieving millionaires. Who graft on Uncle Sam? They who went down to Mexico—To rob the working class, Can go and fight their battles—We refuse to be their ass.

Why should we war with Mexico? We who have nothing to gain; We who must suffer privation, Hunger, starvation and pain? Let the "owners" of Mexico fight For the ranches and mines they claim; Give Rockefeller, Hearst and Morgan, A taste of the hellish game.

Why should we leave our families And march to a foreign land, To butcher, burn and pillage, At the call of the master band? If war is what they're after, Then let the bosses fight. We workers won't share their victories—Say—why should we help them fight?

Everybody in Mason county expected to attend the Vanceburg Fair on MASON COUNTY DAY, Friday, August 14th, 1914. See ad on fourth page.
